STUDENT IT-ENGINEER

WWW.KOBEGILLIS.EU

ABOUT ME

As a student IT engineer, I have been passionate about technology from a young age. I have always had a curious and eager-to-learn mindset, which has led me to constantly seek ways to expand my knowledge and skills. I am good with people and enjoy collaborating on projects and solving problems together. My love for IT and my desire to learn have helped me succeed in my studies, and I look forward to continuing this passion in my future career.
